

Vice-President Industrial Liaison: Norm Rashleigh VE3LC

Yes, I am willing to let my name stand for nomination as Radio Amateurs of Canada, Vice-President, Industrial Liaison.

Please find attached a brief resume that I believe qualifies me for the position.

My RAC membership number is 9043.

Regards

Norm Rashleigh
VE3LC

Biographical sketch:

Resume

Norm Rashleigh, VE3LC

Education

Graduate, Ryerson Polytechnical Institute, Engineering Electronic Technology, 1969

* Numerous career courses in technology, project, and management practices.

Professional Associations

* Past Member of the Association of Public Safety Communications Officials (APCO), Canada

* Professional Engineers, Ontario, past holder of "Limited Licence" in Telecommunications Systems Engineering and Implementation of Radio Systems while working for the RCMP, Ottawa.

* RABC, (Radio Advisory Board of Canada) I have had past experience representing RCMP at various meeting and Committee sessions of the RABC

Professional Career

- * 1969-1975 Canadian National Telecommunications, Toronto, Mobile Radio Engineering Department. Design and Implementation of VHF 2-way radio systems for the CNR.
- * 1975-2005 Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ottawa Headquarters, Telecommunications Branch, Design, Project Management and Implementation of Public Safety Radio Communications Systems.
- * 2006-present Casual employment with "Highpoint Security Technologies Inc."

Avocations (past and present)

- * Car restoration and maintenance.
- * Past holder of Private Pilot Licence.
- * Computer construction, programming and club activity (in early days of micro-computing).
- * Cottage Construction and Ownership (Ham Shack in the Bush)
- * Motorcycling and Boating

Amateur Radio since 1963 with "Amateur" and Advanced Amateur Certificates. Holder of call signs VE3LC and VE3DVF and trustee to call signs VA3NOC and VA3MPC.

Past and present experience and activity in Amateur Radio includes:

- * HF CW, SSB, and PSK 31.
- * HF and VHF mobile
- * VHF / UHF weak signal work.
- * VHF packet
- * APRS
- * Hi-Speed Packet on 220 / 433 MHz
- * Design, Construction , Operation and Maintenance of repeater VE3MPC in Ottawa

* Design and home construction of receivers, transverters, transmitters, antennas, repeater and linking systems, microprocessor controllers, accessories, etc.

* Accredited Examiner on behalf of the Canadian Police College Amateur Radio Club.

* Taught and examined many young student candidates (coop engineering students) in amateur radio.

Amateur Radio Memberships

* Radio Amateurs of Canada

* American Radio Relay League

* QCWA life member and QCWA Chapter 70 member, Ottawa

* Canadian Police College (RCMP) Amateur Radio Club.

Basic Skills

* Basic Computer Literacy, MS Window, Word Processing, Spread Sheet, Project Management, Graphic Applications, Various Amateur Radio Applications, Networking, Security, etc.

* Internet Web searching.

* Technical and Business Writing and Composition.

* Office management

Contact Information

Norman Rashleigh

1611 Wainfleet Street

Ottawa, Ontario

K1C 3G3

phone 613-837-1733

e-mail: rashleigh@sympatico.ca or ve3lc@rac.ca or ve3lc@arrl.net